Hello, Jag Families!

Can you feel it? The days are getting a little longer, the breeze is getting a little warmer, and there is a wonderful sense of "newness" in our community. March is such a special time at Hurricane Intermediate. It's that sweet spot in the school year where our students have truly found their footing, their friendships have deepened, and they are ready to show us just how much they've grown.

Helping a tween or young teen set goals is a bit like tending a garden; it requires the right environment, a lot of patience, and knowing when to step back and let them soak up the sun. At this age, goals shouldn't feel like a heavy weight; we hope they feel like a way for your child to discover what they are capable of.

When we talk about goals at home this month, let's try to shift the focus from "doing more" to "growing well." Here is how you can gently walk alongside your student:

Focus on the Small Wins

For a middle schooler, the big picture can feel overwhelming. Help them find the micro-goal. Instead of a goal to "be a better student," suggest a goal of "clearing my desk for five minutes after school." These tiny victories build a sense of self-trust. When they see they can keep a small promise to themselves, their confidence blossoms.

Listen for the Hidden Goals

Sometimes the most important growth isn't on a report card. Your student might be working on being a better friend, managing their jitters before a performance, or learning how to ask for help. When you sit down together, ask: "What is one thing that would make you feel more like 'you' this month?"

Be the Safe Harbor

At this age, the fear of failing can sometimes keep them from trying. You can nurture their growth by being the place where it's okay to mess up. If a goal doesn't go as planned, remind them that spring doesn't bloom all at once. A missed goal isn't a dead end; it's just a chance to see what kind of soil or support they might need next time.

We are so incredibly grateful to be partners in your child's journey. Thank you for sharing your wonderful students with us every day. Let's make this March a month of kindness, patience, and steady growth.

WCSD Student Dress Guidelines

School administrators are responsible for the implementation and enforcement of student conduct, dress and appearance standards contained in District policy 2200 Student Dress Code and these guidelines. The legal concept of “reasonableness” shall be the guiding principle in the application and discipline of student conduct, dress and appearance. Adherence to the conduct, dress, and appearance standards and these guidelines will be the responsibility of the student and their parent(s)/guardian(s). School administrators will have final judgment on all matters concerning interpretation of student conduct, dress, and appearance.

The following specific guidelines have been established to aid students, parents, staff and administration in the implementation and enforcement of policy 2200 Student Dress Code. Dress and Appearance Standards include (but are not limited to) the following:

1. Clothing should be clean and in good repair.
2. Hats and other headwear:
 - a. May be worn unless it disrupts the school or school activity, poses a danger to self or others, or limits the ability of others to identify the student.
 - b. Any headwear that does not allow the student’s face to be visible is not allowed.
3. Clothing (See figure):
 - a. Must be appropriate in length and not revealing.
 - b. Must provide coverage of the torso with no viewable undergarments. Coverage will be with material that is not see-through
 - c. Tank tops and tube tops are not permitted
4. Clothing, appearance, jewelry, accessory, footwear, or personal item shall be free of any writing, images, symbols, or any other insignias that:
 - a. Are lewd, vulgar, profane, obscene, or sexually suggestive.
 - b. Advocates, represents, or promotes racism, discrimination, violence or hate in any form.
 - c. Signifies or depicts gangs and/or illegal or criminal activities. (Administrators in consultation with law enforcement agencies will determine what signifies and/or depicts these activities.)
 - d. Shows or references tobacco, alcohol, drugs, or any illegal substance.
5. Footwear, appropriate for the day’s activities, shall be worn at all times.
6. Any dress or appearance item or practice that creates an unhealthy, unsafe, or disruption to the school or school activity may be prohibited.

With the approval of District administration and the School Community Council, schools may make minor changes and/or adaptations to the dress and appearance standards in order to address local needs. Schools should seek input from various stakeholder groups.

HIS Policy: Electronic Devices (Phones, iPods, etc.)

Students are allowed to use electronic devices (phones, iPods, AirPods, game devices, etc.) before school begins each morning until the bell rings to send students to class. Once that occurs, students are expected to power off their devices and place them in their backpacks where they will remain until the end of the day—this includes listening devices as well.

Students who ignore this policy may be asked to hand over their device to a faculty member where it may be taken to the main office. In those instances, parents will be contacted so that they can come to the school at their earliest convenience to pick up the device.
